

Applying to become a councillor

Even those who have stood as councillors before may forget what the process was like 4 years ago. It is quite easy, but the rules are it is strict and if not followed exactly, will result in disappointment and rejection for the wrong reasons! The rules are there to ensure that only those who are eligible to stand for election in the community are considered and that those put forward have agreed to stand for election. Parish Councillors are elected by the public and serve four year terms in office in a voluntary (unpaid) capacity.

If you wish to stand as a councillor you must satisfy these requirements

- You need to be over 18 years of age
- A British citizen, a qualifying Commonwealth citizen, or a citizen of any other member state of the European Union
- On the Electoral Register for the council area for which you wish to stand,
- A local government elector of the parish; or a person who during the whole of the twelve months before nomination as a candidate occupied land or other premises as owner or tenant in the parish; or has, during the same period, resided in that area or within three miles thereof; or has during the same period, had a principal or only place of work in that area

You cannot stand for election if you

- Are bankrupt and an Order or Interim Restriction Order has been imposed.
- Have, within five years before the day of the election, been convicted in the United Kingdom of any offence and have had a sentence of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) for a period of over three months without the option of a fine
- Work for the council where you are intending to standing for election (but you can work for other local authorities, including the principal authorities that represent the same area).
- Have been convicted or reported guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice by an election court, or have been disqualified from standing for election to a local authority

The Election Procedure

Ordinary elections of local councillors take place on the first Thursday in May every four years.

A few terms that might need explaining

- Returning Officer – person whose job it is to run an election.
- Standing - Putting your name forward for election.
- Electoral Register – Names and addresses, together with election identification numbers of all people within a community who are registered to vote.
- Election Timetable – dates when specific forms must be publicised or submitted.
- Warded – Areas are split up into what is called ‘wards’ so that councillors are elected by a specific smaller number of people and will be aware of their local concerns rather than having to represent all people within a whole parish.
- Expenses – If you do produce your own leaflets/pamphlets you need to declare how much you have spent on this.

1 Publication of the Notice of Election.

The Chief Executive of the Cornwall Council is the Returning Officer and therefore has the duty to call an election. Election staff in the Cornwall Council Elections’ Office have all the papers you will need and will be able to give advice. The local council noticeboard will also contain the notices and timetable for your area. Information will also be published on social media and the council's website.

2 Getting the nomination forms

You will probably need to contact your Cornwall Council Elections Office to ask for the appropriate forms. The application packs will be available at Cornwall Council offices around the county. Search online for Cornwall parish council election 2021.

3 Completing the nomination forms

You will need to fill in all your personal details and those of the people nominating you. You and those nominating will be asked to fill in your Electoral Register number. You must get your form completed and signed by those nominating you and it will help to copy the numbers of those nominating you when you obtain your own Electoral Register number. You will need to telephone the Cornwall Electoral Office on 01209 614373 to get your number.

4 Sending the nomination forms back.

It is imperative that you submit your forms in accordance with the Timetable of Proceedings. Failure to do so will render your application null and void! The forms must be delivered in person to the nominated office for your area. Complete instructions will be available in your candidate pack. Please do not ask the local council clerk to accept the forms on your behalf.

Checklist:

- Do not forget to get everyone mentioned to sign the forms
- Ensure that all addresses are in full with no abbreviations
- Include the whole Electoral Register reference letters and numbers
- Be careful not to miss important dates
